

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

MORE HORSES THAN THERE ARE STALLS

With the arrival of William Murray, who will officiate in the dual capacity of starter and general manager of the racing department of the Four-State fair at Ogden, beginning Sept. 6, final preparations for the big eleven-day race meeting are under way. Mr. Murray was accompanied from Reno by a number of owners and followers of the game and was greatly pleased at the prospects here, the town having taken on a decidedly turf aspect with the influx of the Reno delegation. About ninety new stalls, made necessary by the large number of horses which will be seen in action here, are now nearing completion. The track already is in excellent condition and everything is in fine shape for the opening, at which one of the biggest crowds that ever attended for the sport is expected Monday.

Horses from Reno.
The advance guard of the Reno horses already have put in an appearance by express. The consignment, including the strings of E. J. Ramsey and C. C. West. The best known performers of the lot are Mabel Hollander, Aksar-Ben, La Chata, which ran well in Reno, La Dextra, a nice 2-year-old, Hereafter, the speed mare which won a number of races in Salt Lake last spring and others. A special, bringing eighty animals, is slated to arrive today. The best known of this lot is Prince of Castle, Kopeck, Birdonia, Velma, C. Birch, Deneen, Wicket and the remarkable Myles O'Connell, said to be one of the best 2-year-olds that ever raced in the West.

Good Jockeys Coming.
About a dozen jockeys, all well known here, will be in the delegation. Among these are Peak, Tullitt, Ots, Franch, who was the star rider in Reno, Eisenzapf, a greatly improved boy, Christie and Cotton, who has developed into a good boy.

Several prominent layers are already here, among them being Frank Maley and Denny Egan from Butte, Jim Hanna and Ambrose Dunn from Reno. Columbus Jones also has dropped into town and Byron McNutt the popular Butte layer, is due Sunday morning. Everything presages a high-class meeting. The card for the opening day will be very attractive, the material at hand making this easily possible.

WHO WILL WIN THE GREAT LEGER

Minoru, the King's Horse, and Bayardo are the Favorites.

London, Sept. 4.—Although he has not yet succeeded in winning 20 per cent of the number of races that fell to his share in the United States last season, the favored Joyner is by no means discouraged. He has still three months ahead in which to increase his total, and if the handicappers will only treat the 3-year-olds less harshly than they have done recently by considerably overweighing them, the chances are they will do some more winning before the season concludes.

Horses in Selling Races.
Apparently Mr. H. P. Whitney is becoming tired of seeing his horses too weight in all the handicaps in which they are engaged. Three that have time after time figured in that position are Bobbin H., Sixty II. and Sea Cliffe, and he has now entered them in a race at Doncaster, each to be sold for $1500.

There is something of satire in this. The idiosyncrasies of handicappers and handicapping are remarkable, and some of them were revealed by Lord Durham in the speech he made in the Jockey club recently.

Though there is plenty of racing to interest and occupy the minds of sportsmen for the next few weeks, the most important race of the near future is the St. Leger, the last "classic" of the year. It will be decided at Doncaster on September 8 and promises to be quite as exciting as all that have gone before it. It is already known that the king will be present, and as his majesty is represented in the race by Minoru, which is expected to follow in the footsteps of Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee, it will be at once gathered that an exciting time is in store.

Those of us who were fortunate enough to see Minoru win the Derby will not readily forget that memorable occasion. It was one of the events of a lifetime, but one wonders what will happen at Doncaster if the king wins his third St. Leger with Minoru. A full-blooded, lusty Yorkshire roarer is a thing to be remembered, and great as was the cheering at Epsom, one imagines that this will be mild as compared with the enthusiasm at Doncaster if the king should be successful.

Will Minoru win the St. Leger? But the question that is exercising our minds, and will continue to do so until the race is over, is whether Minoru can win. He has not been beaten as a 2-year-old, and in addition to the Derby has also the 2,000 guineas to his credit. He therefore has only to carry off the St. Leger to win the triple crown, for then he will have taken all the classic races for which a colt can run.

There are some who believe to this day that William the Fourth would have won the Derby had he not been interfered with when Sir Martin fell, approaching Tattenham Corner, and it must be acknowledged that in spite of that mishap William got into third place. Be that as it may, Minoru won, though only by a short head, from Louviers and in the light of what has since happened there is a doubt as to the ability of his majesty's colt to win.

Among those who will challenge Minoru is Bayardo, and there is a singularity about the performances of the two colts which is worth while relating. As a 2-year-old Bayardo won all his seven races, and as a consequence he was a winter favorite for the Derby, but Minoru won his first race, and then failed to get his head first past the post in the next five engagements, though he was placed in four of them. Then we find this year Bayardo losing in favor of his beaten once before, the Derby day, while Minoru won twice, and on the great day both were supplanted for favoritism by the American colt, Sir Martin, who came to grief. The story of the race is too old to repeat here, but it may be mentioned that Bayardo finished fifth, and since that day neither colt has suffered defeat. Minoru having two wins, and Bayardo four to his credit. So that they meet on the Town Moor on pretty equal terms, and with the knowledge that Bayardo has at least justified his 2-year-old reputation. He has not damaged it much, but both his defeats, the only two of his career, happened to be in the races won by Minoru—the Guineas and the Derby—and it is only the fact that he has since since then were won so easily that makes him out to stand any chance in the St. Leger.

UHLAN DEFEATS HAMBURG BELLE

Readville, Mass., Sept. 3.—Over a track fully two seconds slower than when the great Lou Dillon startled the world with a mile in two minutes, the trotting gelding Uhlau defeated Hamburg Belle in straight heats at the Readville track today in the second meeting of the trotting championship of the world.

Hamburg Belle was favorite before the start, at odds of 5 to 3, because of her success last week in the initial meeting of the cracks at Cleveland. At that meet she earned the world's record of 2:14.4 in a trotting race, a race, two seconds better than the previous mark, which has stood since the Crecus-The Abbott race at Brighton Beach in 1903.

Uhlau is a five-year-old gelding by Binzen, out of Blonde, by Sir Walter. He was bred by Arthur H. Parker of Bedford, Mass., once the owner of Binzen, for which he paid $32,000 at auction and later sold to William G. Bradbury of New York for a largely advanced price. When Uhlau was three years old Mr. Parker sold him to Charles Sanders of Salem, Mass., for $2,500.

The same season Uhlau won a race to a matinee wagon over the Readville track in 2:13.34. In his four-year-old form Uhlau won in all his races excepting the American trotting derby, securing a record of 2:07.14, the fastest race record made by a gelding of that age. This season his single defeat was by Hamburg Belle at Cleveland, having previously won in that city, tying the gelding race record of The Abbott in 2:02.34. He repeated this performance at Buffalo and bettered it today by a half second.

Results:

2:11 trot, purse, 1,000, two in three—Baron May won second and third heats in 2:08.34; 2:08.22. Demarc won first heat in 2:10.14. Dr. Jack, Bell Bird, A. Laundry and Birch Leaf also started.

SIX-DAY CONTEST FOR MOTOR CYCLES.

New York, Sept. 3.—The first six-day motorcycle race to be held in this country will take place on the Brighton Beach motor track beginning at midnight September 26 and ending at midnight October 3. The recently organized association, which includes several makers of motorcycles, has announced contest and is seeking entrants. For thrills and continued excitement at high pitch on the part of the persons witnessing the event it is believed that this contest will surpass anything previously devised.

That it will be even more exciting than the twenty-four-hour automobile race is believed, because there is likely to be many more contestants and because enthusiasm is given for a whole week day and night to work up to the final climax. Experts declare that the racing or pacing motorcycle is the most dangerous vehicle to ride, and this is borne out by the number of motorcycle accidents recorded at bicycle racing meets.

REMARKABLE WORK OF TRAP SHOOTERS.
Denver, Sept. 3.—Two world's records were broken at the big gun club tournament which closed today at the Fred Stone Gun club. Squad No. 1 scored 490 out of 500, thereby setting up a new record in competition.

The squads were composed of Fred Bill, O. N. Ford, P. E. Foltz, J. Garrett and W. Henderson. The Colorado handicap, the blue ribbon event of the shoot, was won by W. Henderson of Lexington, Ky. Henderson defeated K. Sheppard in the third time-off, 25 to 19.
